P.C.

. Heard Mrs. Chedda, the learned counsel for the petitioner, Mr. Pradeep Rajgopal for respondent no.2 and Mrs. Chavan for respondent no.3. After the order was passed in the last week i.e. on 4.4.2006, Mrs. Beena Chavan has taken instructions and she states that for the period from 08/05/1962 to 07/05/1964 O.N.G.C. will reimburse leave salary and the pension fund contribution to the Election Commission. She, however, states that the petitioner should make formal application for that purpose. Mrs. Chedda says that such an application will be made since required. She

states that O.N.G.C.,is fully in the know of the claim of the petitioner, even then she will make necessary application within a week.we direct that O.N.G.C., will pass necessary order for reimbursing leave salary and releasing pension contribution within two weeks from the receipt of the application. On receiving necessary communication from the O.N.G.C., surely Election Commission will take the expeditious steps to release corrected pension to the petitioner. In view of the judgment of the Apex Court, the Election Commission will release the pension with interest.

. Petition stands disposed of.
